

310-account book — leftover after opex

Instant 98 · 1-Step 67 · Lite 82 · Pro 63 · 310 accounts. CAD 10,000 wages (~$7,200) are fixed. Day rules: Instant 20% Best Day on every green day; a day meets 0.5% only if profit is more than 0.5% of SOD; 1-Step QPP no min days + 50% Best Day; 2-Step 5 eval / 3 QPP. Challenge leftover $9,661/mo (17.8% of $54,270 sale revenue).

1. Monthly P&L; at 310

Leftover = sale × 0.80 – (BE × 1.10 + $1 + wage). Instant BE is year-1 E[X]. Eval BE is first-payout E[X] / (1 – P(pay)), so the fee refund sits in BE. Sale m in the SKU table ignores ads, wages, $1, and the 10% error — do not run on it.

Line	$ / month

1-Step still carries most leftover (P(pay) 8.2%) and the $25k–$100k doors sit above the opex floor. Instant leftover is thinner: year-1 BE is the whole fee job. Instant $100k leftover is $20 after the Best Day day-count change. Lite $5k is about $0 after allocated wages — keep the Hola/TFT street door.

2. Volume — wages do not scale

Same mix. Wages stay $7,200. At 150 accounts leftover compresses; at 600 it fattens. Do not price as if 310 is a forecast — it is the wage-allocation book.

Green = Instant. Blue = evals. No row is more than $1 under the floor. Lite $5k leftover is about $0; Pro $5k/$10k and Instant $5k/$10k are the next thinnest.

4. Add-ons, attach-weighted

News attach = 0. Weekend / Weekly / On Demand attach is the early-book mix (not 100% of N). Rec card is Weekend 12%, Weekly 70% 8%, On Demand 90% 15% evals / 32% Instant. Checkout still bills 15% / 6% / 20%.

Card	Weekend	Weekly 70%	On Demand 90%	Extra leftover
Rec 12% / 8% / 15–32%	$572	$188	$428	$1,188
Checkout 15% / 6% / 20%	$760	$111	$329	$1,199

Blended leftover at rec add-on %: $10,849/mo. At checkout 15/6/20: $10,861/mo. Instant $100k On Demand at 20% still does not print as a unit; the mix can.
